1. Approximately 100 Soviet officials with military, economic, commercial, and intelligence backgrounds have arrived in Bucharest and have been assigned to strategic locations in the Rumanian Government. In most cases these Soviet officials are termed "advisors" to Rumanians holding key positions in the State Siguranta, the new militia, and various ministries. The task of these "advisors" is apparently to insure strict compliance with orders issued by Moscow.
2. Personnel of a "planning mission", which is presently drafting a new economic - military - commercial plan for Rumania, has also arrived from the USSR.
3. The newly arrived Russians are housed in requisitioned dwellings in the Percul Jiamu section of Bucharest.
4. The "planning mission" is reported to have ordered the Rumanian Government to secure penicillin by all possible means.
